LATEST FROM MISSOURI

HADLEY LEADS COWHERD.

Republican Candidate for Governor of Missouri in the Lead.

St. Louis, Nov. 4.—Missouri gave its electoral votes to Bryan and Kern, [illegible] Democratic nominees being estimated at less than 20,000.

Both political parties are claiming the election of their candidates for governor, neither being willing to concede defeat.

Herbert S. Hadley, Republican, [illegible] Cowherd, Democrat, by nearly 16,000 votes in the race for governor of Missouri, with 86 counties and the city of St. Louis partially reported. William J. Stone has a lead of 7,290 votes over Gov. Folk for the senatorship, with 62 counties and the city of St. Louis heard from.

As belated returns came in Wednesday morning they steadily increased Hadley's lead and cut down that of Stone. Stone's total lead of 7,290 in the state, compared with his lead of 14,000 in St. Louis alone, shows that Folk is carrying the country and the strong Folk counties are still to be heard from.

Incomplete returns from 69 counties in the presidential race show that Taft is leading Bryan in Missouri by 1,797. As this includes the city of St. Louis, however, late returns are expected to give the state safely to Bryan.

"If Hadley's plurality in St. Louis is not less than 12,000, and comes nearer to 15,000, he is elected governor and will carry the whole Republican state ticket with him, including the legislature, on joint ballot," said John A. Knott, the Democratic nominee for railway and warehouse commissioner, at the Four-Courts Wednesday, when [illegible] attorney general was winding up with to St. Louis.
